St. James Academy 80's Style Variety Show

Solana Beach, California- St. James Academy students and staff presented "Message From the 80's", a school-wide variety show. The show was hosted by the very talented St. James Academy Student Council and choreographed by parent volunteers.

Each class performed a song from the 80's, complete with vintage costumes and dance moves. Even the teaching staff got involved with an 80's fashion show based on what they wore in the 80's. The Variety Show, is performed by the students annually and there's always a line around the building to get the best seats.

"The Variety Show is one of my favorite projects of the school year. It gives every student a chance to perform. We have extremely talented students at St. James Academy and it gives them all a fun opportunity to shine," said Anne Marie Oldham, the Performing Arts Director.
